nUndertale — Lore Bible (canonical, v2)

> Status: canonical document for lore, world rules, cast, structure, routes and art/audio direction. v2 fully replaces v1 (the "Gamers vs Fandoms / Firewall / Gamertags / WASD keycaps" premise was dropped). Scope: a complete ~25–30 minute experience on the main route (speedrun ~15–18 min); the Furry route runs about as long. Precedence: when this file conflicts with `ROTEIRO.md`, `notes.txt`, `LoreScene.cpp` or proposals in `BACKLOG.md`, this file wins. Language: this document is written in English because it is a development reference and because the jokes live in English — most of the memes the game parodies come from English-speaking internet culture. Every line the player sees is English; quoted in-game text follows `docs/writing_style.md`.

1. The pitch

Twelve years ago, the GAMERS won the Great Yiff War and sealed the FURRIES under Mt. Dew — a mountain made of gamer trash — behind a Barrier of closed-bedroom stench and expired body spray.

Pepe, 26, a jaded gamer who lives in his mom's basement, loses his internet 30 minutes before his guild's raid, climbs Mt. Dew looking for signal, and falls into the Rift.

Down there, every furry wants the same thing: for him to say "yes." A gamer soul can only be converted willingly — and the King needs one more to break the Barrier and furrify the entire surface. That's why the Underground is so nice. The hugs, the glitter Pop-Tarts, the blankets, the "you're safe here": it's all love-bombing.

The game in one sentence: Undertale, except the danger isn't dying — it's liking it.

- Main threat: furrification. Every hit makes Pepe fluffier (the FUR meter). HP 0 = FURRY OVER.
- Alternate route: if FUR reaches 100% and Pepe accepts, he becomes a furry, his health bar flips (it becomes FLUFF) and the game gains an extra act: his guild comes down Mt. Dew to raid the furries — and Pepe fights the gamers.
- Butt of the joke: furries are the main object of disgust; gamers are a close second, and just as gross.

2. Content and tone rules

2.1 What's allowed

Allowed	How
Sexual innuendo and gross-out humor	Through vocabulary and open reference: fandom slang ("yiff", "OwO", "musk", "NSFW", "commissions", "horny jail"), hentai/ecchi on the gamer side, tabs closed in a hurry, suspicious folders, implication. It carries narrative weight: it is the satire.
Furries as the main target	Stinky fursuits, the zipper, musk, unsolicited hugs, "18+" art, commissions, zero shame, love-bombing.
Gamers are gross too	Hygiene, the bottle that isn't Mountain Dew, the "Homework" folder, the "ergonomic" mousepad, swimsuit gacha, Discord simps, the body pillow "washed once", the "she's actually a 1,000,000-year-old dragon" excuse.

2.2 What's not allowed (fixed rules)

Forbidden	Detail
Nothing visually explicit	No nudity, acts or anatomy in sprites, backgrounds or cutscenes. The visual ceiling is mosaic censorship as a joke and suggestive objects that stay closed (tab, folder, curtain).
Children	No children in the game, no references to children, no character with a childlike look. Every character is an adult. Undertale's Monster Kid has no parody. Fandom vocabulary tied to minors (e.g. "cub") is forbidden.

Forbidden	Detail
Controlled exception: the dragon excuse	Only as satire of the gamer making the excuse. The character he refers to never appears, is never described and has no sprite. The joke is the narrator cutting the gamer off (§18.5).
Real animals	No reference to acts involving real animals. Every "animal" in the game is a person's fursona/fursuit.
Real people	No real person named, depicted or recognizable (this includes faces from photo memes, YouTubers, streamers). Real-world events, sites and conventions become fictional too (e.g. the convention is FurNation Con '14).

2.3 How to make the "gross" humor work

1. The implication is funnier than the thing. The narrator refuses: `* No.` · `* You decide not to look.` · `* The narrator has muted this description.`
2. Cut it off mid-sentence. `Okay but technically— * No.`
3. Closed object. A curtain, a tab, a folder, a padlocked book. Examining it twice changes the reaction; it never opens.
4. Ratio: ~70% of the gross-out jokes land on furries, ~30% on gamers. Gamers show up more on the surface side (guild messages, Pepe's room, the "The Raid" act).
5. Pepe is the "classic Pepe" (the melancholy comic frog, "feels good man"). No political iconography associated with the meme.
6. Write the meme natively. The jokes are English internet culture — ratio, touch grass, skill issue, "no cap", "it's giving", "rent free", "down bad", Reply Guys, copypastas. Use the real cadence of the format (a Discord message reads like a Discord message, a streamer reads like a streamer) instead of explaining the joke.

2.4 Overall tone

- Comedic horror on the main route: the Underground is cute and cozy, and scary precisely because of that.
- Affection under the gross-out: every character gets a moment of dignity (Barky afraid of not being accepted, Papyrus wanting to belong, the King in mourning).
- Density: no room without at least one funny examinable object; roughly one laugh every ~20 seconds.
- Rule of three in signs and repetitions; callbacks planted in the Ruins and paid off in the Con Center (§30).

---

3. Canonical decisions

Topic	Decision
Conflict	Gamers vs Furries. Gamers = the humans (they won, they live on the surface). Furries = the monsters (sealed in the Underground). Weeaboos are not a faction; the only weeb in the Underground is Senpai Sans (§10.4).
Antagonists	Apparent: King Asgrr (wants the 7th soul). Real: Floofy (Flowey parody, zero shame). On the Furry route: xX_Moderator_Xx, leader of Pepe's guild. On the Toxic route: Pepe himself.

Threat	Furrification by voluntary conversion: the furries need Pepe to say yes.
Furry route (trigger)	FUR hits 100% → Mirror scene → the player accepts or refuses (§8.5).
Flipped bar	On the Furry route, HP becomes FLUFF: a pink bar that fills right to left; damage comes from SHAME; hitting zero = GAMER OVER (§8.6).
Pepe's secret	He secretly likes furries, only through subtle hints (§10.1). Never stated outright.
Cut from v1	Firewall/Gamertags/DDoS, WASD keycaps, the Wholesome reconciliation ending, weebs as a faction, Weebfall.
D-01	Red soul; name `PEPE` → frog-shaped soul (cosmetic).
D-05	Persistent FUR with stages; 100% opens the Mirror (not a game over).
D-06	Barky = mini-boss; Furiell = Ruins boss.
D-07	LV = Level of Vitriol; EXP = eXcessive Posting; routes Gamer (with variants), Toxic Gamer, Furry.
Toxic route cap	Ruins 6, Snowdinha 6, Wetfall 5, Hotland 3 (random encounters only). Differs from `flags.md` (20).

4. Cosmology

4.1 The Surface

The world above, home of the Gamers. After the war nobody posts fanart anymore: just headshot clips, patch-note complaints and gacha banners. Closed bedrooms, monitor glow, bottles on the floor. It is technically a victory. Nobody seems happy.

4.2 Mt. Dew

A mountain made of 12 years of gamer trash: compacted cans, Dorito dust in layers ("the nacho stratum"), broken headsets, cables and bottles that are not soda. At the peak, a giant flat-brim cap. Legend: "you get 5G at the top" (a lie; one bar, sometimes). Halfway up is the Rift, with a hand-written sign: `FREE HUGS ↓`.

4.3 The Underground

The furry kingdom under Mt. Dew. It is the FurNation Con '14 convention center, which sank whole on the day of the Sealing, plus everything the furries built around it over 12 years. No Wi-Fi: only a local network (the Undernet) hosting the Archive — 12 years of fandom art, "most of it behind the 18+ button."

Area	What it is	Satire target
The Ruins of Con '14	The convention's original halls: banners, booths, the Art Show with its 18+ section behind a curtain.	Conventions, zippers, fursuit smell, the fandom "mom"

Area	What it is	Satire target
Snowdinha	A village under the industrial AC (60 °F for 12 years), with an RGB LED aurora. Small-town vibes.	Streaming, wanting to belong, small-town Discord
Wetfall	Damp caverns: 12 years of condensed fursuit sweat turned into a waterfall. Smells like "wet dog."	Musk, DMs, commissions, species gatekeeping
Hotland Data Center	The Archive's server room. 113 °F.	Influencers, moderation, the Archive itself
The Con Center	The main hall, turned into a castle. Beige, quiet, participation trophies.	The war, grief, tribalism
The Barrier	Behind the throne.	—

4.4 The Barrier

A wall of greenish-yellow fog: the combined stench of seven gamers who hadn't showered in a week, "masked" with expired spray deodorant, with a spinning "no signal" icon in the middle. It is the ROTEIRO's Barrier ("expired deodorant and nonexistent Wi-Fi").

* The air here smells like a closed bedroom.
* Your eyes water. You feel... at home?
```

5. History and timeline

5.1 Two versions of history

The game tells the war twice, and both versions are biased:

- The gamer version (the intro, §9): the winners' propaganda. Furries as "degenerates" who tried to convert everyone.
- The furry version (Hall of Posts, §16): the furries only wanted to "share" (the "Free Hugs Campaign")... they just shared too much, unprompted, on every game forum, at 3 AM.

Neither is right. Both sides were gross; only one of them won.

5.2 Timeline

Year	Event
~2003	The Forum Era. Gamers and furries on separate forums. Each gross in their own corner.
2007	The Free Hugs Campaign. Furries start posting fursonas on gaming forums captioned `free hugs :3`. Gamers reply with copypastas.

Year	Event
2007–2014	The Great Yiff War (the gamer name; furries call it The Shaming). Furry weapon: Furrification (hugs, glitter, OwO). Gamer weapon: Shame (cringe compilations, ratios, screenshots). Shame is lethal to furries: anyone shamed hard enough turns to dust.
2014	The Battle of FurNation Con '14. Gamers storm the convention with their cameras rolling.
2014	The Sealing. The Seven Moderators pool their own souls and seal the entire convention center under Mt. Dew behind the Barrier. Asgrr, the Con's president, becomes King; Furiell, Queen.
2014	The First Fallen: `xX_CHARA_Xx`. An adult, edgy gamer who "hated everyone equally." Adopted by the royal family; becomes best friends with Prince Azzy (an adult).
2015	The Incident. Chara talks Azzy into a plan: Chara gives up their gamer soul willingly (the first conversion in history), Azzy absorbs it and crosses the Barrier holding a `FREE HUGS` sign to "show that furries are cool." On the surface, at a LAN party, the gamers film him. The compilation "FURRY AT LAN PARTY (GONE WRONG)" passes 10 million views. Azzy never fights back. He returns to the Underground and turns to shame-dust in the castle garden. Chara, soulless, "logs off" forever.
2015	The Decree. The grieving King: "Every gamer who falls will be WELCOMED. When we have seven souls, we will break the Barrier, and every gamer up there will become one of us. No one will ever shame us again."
2015	The Split. Furiell disagrees with the "by force" part; she wants "everyone in their own time, with lots of love and Pop-Tarts." She moves to the Ruins to catch the fallen before the Guard does.
2015	Floofy awakens (§6.5).
2015–2021	Six gamers fall. All of them say yes (§6.3).
2021–202X	Nobody falls.
202X	Pepe falls. The raid starts in 30 minutes.

5.3 The Seven Moderators

The gamers who sealed the furries away. They appear in stained glass (Con Center), books (Librarby) and — one of them — in the finale. The "Stained glass" column is the in-game text.

Moderator	Description	Stained glass
`xX_N00bSl4yer_Xx`	Invented "git gud."	`* xX_N00bSl4yer_Xx. Coined "git gud." Never elaborated.`
`CTRL_ALT_DEFEAT`	Never lost an argument; always logged off first.	`* CTRL_ALT_DEFEAT. Undefeated in debate. Left every single one.`

Moderator	Description	Stained glass
`TheRatioKing`	Nobody remembers what he said, only the numbers.	`* TheRatioKing. Nobody remembers his posts. Everyone remembers his numbers.`
`MLG_Prophet`	Pixel shades, a Dorito behind his ear, an air horn.	`* MLG_Prophet. The glass is shaped like an air horn. You can almost hear it.`
`Sk1llIssue`	Answered everything with "skill issue," including requests for help.	`* Sk1llIssue. Beneath him, a plaque: "Asked for help? Skill issue."`
`CapsLockCarl`	Nobody knows if he was angry or if his caps lock was stuck.	`* CAPSLOCKCARL. EVEN THE GLASS IS SHOUTING.`
`xX_Moderator_Xx`	The leader. Now 38, leader of Pepe's guild. Hasn't showered since the Sealing ("a ritual"). Furry route boss (§19.9).	`* xX_Moderator_Xx. The artist added stink lines. In stained glass.`

6. The rules of the world

> These rules are the game's "physics." Every mechanic and every line of dialogue has to respect them.

6.1 The gamer soul

Every gamer has a red SOUL made of DETERMINATION (and a little rage). It is the most powerful thing in the Underground: only gamer souls can cross the Barrier, and only seven gamer souls can undo it (seven made it).

6.2 Conversion is voluntary

- A gamer soul only comes out willingly. Nobody can rip it out.
- That's why the whole Underground is so nice: the strategy is love-bombing. Hugs, food, blankets, compliments on a fursona you don't even have — until the gamer says "yes."
- Furrification is the process: every contact with the Underground's cuteness (the bullets) deposits "fluff" on the gamer (the FUR meter). At 100% FUR, the gamer is ready for the question.
- When the gamer accepts, the red soul leaves the chest and a pink plush soul with little ears takes its place. The gamer becomes a furry and slowly forgets they were a gamer (only flashes remain: "one more match...").
- HP 0 is a forced attempt: the soul refuses (DETERMINATION), and the result is a FURRY OVER — you "go back" to your last save.

6.3 The six jars

In the castle basement, six mason jars hold the red souls of the gamers who said "yes," labeled in the King's handwriting:

#	Year	Gamertag	Who they are now	Why they said "yes"	Where they appear
2	2015	`xX_AFK_Xx`	Napstablurk	Was AFK; "yes" was the first thing they'd typed in months.	Ruins (optional)
3	2016	`BrbJerry`	Jerry	Said "brb" and never came back. Counted as a yes.	Snowdinha
4	2017	`GymRat_Gaming`	Musk-ron	Was promised his fursona would be "jacked."	Wetfall
5	2018	`quiet_healer`	Vtuber-en	An avatar was easier than a face.	Wetfall
6	2019	`ClipFarmer_99`	Mettapaw	"Furry content performs really well."	Hotland
7	2021	`xX_BarkSc0p3_Xx`	Barky	Two weeks of Furiell's Pop-Tarts.	Ruins (mini-boss)

Jar labels (examine text):

- Barky: `* A jar labeled "xX_BarkSc0p3_Xx (2021)". * Someone drew a tiny wolf on it. * With a visible zipper.`
- Napstablurk: `* A jar labeled "xX_AFK_Xx (2015)". * The soul inside hasn't moved. * It might be idle.`
- Jerry: `* A jar labeled "BrbJerry (2016)". * Someone wrote "brb" on the lid. * Then "back". Then "brb" again.`
- Musk-ron: `* A jar labeled "GymRat_Gaming (2017)". * The jar is sweating. * Somehow.`
- Vtuber-en: `* A jar labeled "quiet_healer (2018)". * There's a tiny paper mask taped to the glass.`
- Mettapaw: `* A jar labeled "ClipFarmer_99 (2019)". * It has a sticker that says "LIKE & SUBSCRIBE".`

6.4 Shame (SHAME)

- Shame is the gamers' weapon and the only thing that kills a furry: anyone shamed hard enough turns to dust (Undertale's "dust").
- In main-route combat, Pepe's FIGHT is this: he mocks, points, films. The hit is shame. That's why killed enemies turn into plush dust.
- On the Furry route, the same shame is what hurts Pepe (FLUFF damage).

6.5 Floofy

After Azzy turned to dust, Alphys (the royal scientist) tried an experiment: she put DETERMINATION into a golden flower planted where the dust fell… and slid Azzy's old fursuit head over it. The flower woke up. With the prince's head, and nobody inside.

- Floofy has no soul, so he has no shame. None. He feels no disgust, guilt, embarrassment or limits.
- Since shame killed Azzy, Floofy decided shame is the only rule of the world: "In this world, it's SHAME or be SHAMED."

- He has DETERMINATION, so he remembers saves and resets.
- He wants the seven souls to become a shameless god and "free" the entire world from ever being ashamed of anything. (He is, quite literally, the furry with the fewest boundaries in existence.)

7. Reveal layers

Layer	The player learns	Where
1	The furries were sealed away by the gamers.	Intro
2	Getting hit makes you fluffy; HP 0 "converts" you (FURRY OVER).	Floofy (tutorial), first FURRY OVER
3	Furiell wants you to stay. Forever.	Furiell's house
4	Conversion is voluntary; everyone is nice on purpose.	Grillby's LAN House (Senpai Sans)
5	Barky and others used to be gamers.	Wetfall (Repost Flowers) → the King's jars
6	Azzy and Chara's story (and the furry version of the war).	Hall of Posts
7	Floofy is Azzy without shame.	Alphys's lab (log) → finale
8	Pepe… might have always liked it.	Hints only; on the Furry route, the Mirror

8. Systems explained by the lore

8.1 SOUL and soul modes

Mode	Color	Introduced by	Fiction	Text
Normal	Red	—	Gamer soul	—
Gravity	Blue	Papyrus	"Streamer mode": the weight of lag	`YOUR SOUL IS BLUE NOW! THAT'S THE COLOR OF MY SUBSCRIBER BADGE! NYEH!`
Shield	Green	Sharkdyne	Do Not Disturb mode: blocking DMs	`* Your SOUL is now on DO NOT DISTURB. Block the DMs!`
Shooter	Yellow	Mettapaw	A cursor to answer the quiz	`OH YES! YOUR SOUL IS A CURSOR NOW, DARLING! CLICK!`
Plush	Pink with ears	—	Furry route	`* Your SOUL is soft now.`

Easter egg: name `PEPE` or `FROG` → frog-shaped red soul (cosmetic).

8.2 LV and EXP

- LV = Level of Vitriol. EXP = eXcessive Posting: killing means posting shame about someone until they turn to dust.
- Level-up: `* Your LEVEL OF VITRIOL increased.`
- Senpai Sans, in the Last Lobby: `lv is level of vitriol. exp? excessive posting. the more you post at people... the easier it gets to post at people.`

8.3 HP and FURRY OVER

- Normal HP (yellow over red bar, BUI-005).
- HP 0 = forced conversion attempt → FURRY OVER (§23.1). Back to the save.
- Exception: losing to Papyrus = capture (§19.3).

8.4 FUR (furrification meter, main route)

Displayed like Sans's KARMA: a `FUR` label after the HP bar, a `KR_PURPLE` (#FF00FF) portion overlaid on it, pinkish numbers when > 0, hidden at 0%.

Gain

Source	FUR
"Neutral" bullet (cans, bones, cables)	+2 to +4
"Cute" bullet (hearts, UwU, glitter, plush)	+6 to +8
"Very cute" bullet (hugs, petals, `:3` DMs)	+10
ACT Accept Hug (many enemies)	+10 to +15, but spares on the spot
Cute armor equipped	gain ×1.25 (or ×2)
Furiell's bed	+5 (and full HP)
Fursuit Head (item) equipped	+40 at once

> Core tension: the easiest way to spare is to accept the hug. Going pacifist fast costs fluff. Love-bombing as a mechanic.

Loss

Source	FUR
`Duct Tape`	−15
ACT `Touch` on Grasstoid	−10
ACT `Shower` on Washua	−10
Shed Inn (Snowdinha, 10G)	−25
Refusing the Mirror	back to 60
Save point	0 (`* DETERMINATION can't fix fluff.`)

Visual stages (overworld sprites, portrait and battle)

FUR	Stage	Look	Reactions
0–19	Frog	Normal Pepe: the classic meme frog, eye bags, nacho-stained blue T-shirt, shorts, flip-flops.	—
20–39	Ears	Little wolf ears poking out between his eye domes.	`* Nice ears, newcomer!`
40–59	Paws	Paw hands and feet.	Barky: `Dude. Your paws are SO much better than mine.`
60–79	Tail	A shiny tail that wags as he walks.	Shopkeepers give a "fandom discount."
80–99	Snout	A snout, mint-green fur patches, a "squeak" at the end of his lines.	Senpai Sans: `heh. you're one bad day away from a con badge.`
100	Mirror	Triggers the choice (§8.5).	—

On stage change: a "pomf" of fluff and `* You feel... fluffier.`

8.5 The Mirror (Furry route trigger)

- When: FUR reaches 100% (from room R3 on). At the end of the battle or event that caused it, the screen turns pink and Pepe sees himself in a mirror.
- Who speaks: the reflection — fully furry Pepe ("Pepe the Pawsome"). He says little:

* (Hey.)
* (You've been fighting this the whole way down.)
* (...You don't have to.)
```

- Choice: `Accept` / `Refuse`.
  - Refuse: Duct Tape cutscene ripping the fur off (`* RIIIIIP. * You are a gamer. You are a GAMER.`), FUR drops to 60. It can happen again; the 2nd time the reflection says `* (...Again?)`; the 3rd, `* (I'll be here.)`.
  - Accept: the red soul leaves his chest and drops into a jar (key item `Your Old SOUL (Jar)`); the plush soul stays in his chest. The Furry route begins (§17).
- Locks: never on the Toxic route (FUR caps at 99: `* Your vitriol burns the fluff right off.`).
- On purpose: players who want the Furry route can equip the `Fursuit Head` (Furiell's house), accept hugs, sleep in Furiell's bed and wear cute armor.

8.6 FLUFF (flipped bar, Furry route)

- After the Mirror the HUD changes: `HP` becomes `FLF`. The bar is pink (#FF77C8) over dark purple and fills right to left (mirrored). The numbers turn pink.
- Max: max HP + 10 ("fluff is thick").
- Damage: comes from SHAME (gamer attacks: screenshots, ratios, cringe compilations). Some attacks leave residual SHAME (a gray overlay that drains slowly, like KR).

- Healing: hugs (NPCs, ACT `Hug Yourself`), Pop-Tarts, plush items.
- FLUFF 0 → GAMER OVER (§23.2): Pepe "turns back into a gamer" — the normal game over becomes the worst possible fate.
- FUR no longer exists on this route.

8.7 The Raid Clock

- When he wakes up in R1, the phone buzzes: `RAID STARTS IN 30:00. BE THERE OR GET KICKED. bring dew -xX_Moderator_Xx`
- Shown in STAT and on the CELL; counts real play time (paused in menus).
- Never a game over. When it hits zero: `* Your phone buzzes. * "Raid started without you. Kicked." * ...You feel strangely okay with that.`
- Tuned so the average player runs out of time around the Con Center.
- Furry route twist: the raid was against the Underground. When the Barrier falls, it comes to Pepe (§17).

8.8 SAVE, G and death

- Save point: a golden star spinning on top of a soda bottle (tssss on save). Formula: `* [something about the place] fills you with DETERMINATION.` Heals HP; does not reduce FUR.
- G: Mountain Dew can tabs. Nobody takes cards.
- Furry death: turns into plush stuffing + glitter dust (shame). Ex-gamers also release a red spark that flies toward the castle.
- Gamers (Furry route) don't die: when beaten they rage-quit (`* xX_... has left the game.`) or go to horny jail (§18.5).
- Spare: yellow name; 1:1 effect; optional notification sound.

9. Intro: the 10 cards

The intro is gamer propaganda: the narrator is biased (that's the joke; the furry version comes in the Hall of Posts). It keeps the spirit of the game's original text.

Card	Image	Text
1	`lore1` — Pepe and a furry side by side	`Long ago, two races ruled` / `over the internet:` / `GAMERS and FURRIES.`
2	`lore2` — fursuit wolf with a bone vs armored Pepe	`One day, the FURRIES tried` / `to turn every GAMER` / `into a FURRY.`

10. Cast

> Every character is an adult. Format: parody of · role · look · personality · voice · lines · gross factor (what makes them gross) · fate.

10.1 Pepe the Fallen Gamer (protagonist)

- Parody of: Frisk.
- Role: the 8th fallen; owner of the 7th gamer soul.
- Who he is: 26, lives with his mom, in the basement bedroom. Lives on raids, gacha and Doritos.
- Look: the classic Pepe meme frog: a wide, lumpy head with two eye domes on top, heavy droopy eyelids over big white eyes, faint under-eye lines, wide two-part reddish-brown lips with a slight frown. Plain blue T-shirt with nacho stains, shorts, flip-flops, plain green frog hands (same skin as the face; no orange fingertips, they read as gloves and pull him away from Pepe). Overworld ~20×30 px native (anchor sprite: `docs/art_prompts/ruins/style/04_pepe_anchor.png`; legacy: `pepe_char.bmp`).
- Personality: sarcastic, lazy, openly hates furries. Never speaks out loud (faithful to Frisk): he only thinks, in `* (...)`.
- Gamer gross factor: his inventory starts with a `Bottle` he doesn't want to discuss (`* A bottle. It's not Mountain Dew.` / `* (You don't want to talk about it.)`). It can't be used, only thrown away (`* You throw it away. The Underground will remember.`). His phone has a folder called `Homework` (400 GB) that shows up on the CELL and never opens.
- Secret (subtle): he likes furries, but the game never says so. There are only hints the player might not even catch — he knows too much:
  - Examining Barky's fursuit: `* (Digitigrade legs. Those are expensive.)` `* (...Not that you'd know.)`
  - Examining a plush tail: `* (Good stitching.)` `* (You don't know why you noticed that.)`
  - At the Art Show's 18+ section: `* You decide to respect the curtain.` → 2nd time: `* You respect the curtain. For a while.` → 3rd: `* (...No.)`
  - At the shop: `* (Fandom discount? You don't need that.)` `* (You take the fandom discount.)`
  - In the Mirror (Furry route), the only confirmation: `* (You always kind of wondered.)`
- Furry form: "Pepe the Pawsome" — a green frog-wolf with a scarf, fluffy ears, a shiny tail, eye bags still there.

- Starting gear: `Frayed USB Mouse` (AT 2), `One-Sided Broken Headset` (DF 1).

10.2 Furiell — Guardian of the Ruins (Area 1 boss)

- Parody of: Toriel.
- Role: former Queen. Lives in the Ruins to catch gamers before the Guard does and convert them "with love." She is the love-bombing champion. Anonymously signs the "Ruins Administration" notices.
- Look: a fluffy white goat fursuit, half-moon glasses, a paw-print apron, a zipper visible on her back (she swears it isn't there).
- Personality: smothering mom energy, kind, sweetly passive-aggressive. Calls everyone "my child" (a verbal tic; Pepe is an adult). Bakes glitter Pop-Tarts.
- Voice: default font, soft low beep.
- Lines:
  - `Welcome to your new home, my child. ...Do you like blankets? I have forty.`
  - `The surface is full of cruel people with cameras. Down here, nobody will ever laugh at you.`
  - `You can always accept a hug. It is the fastest way to make friends.`
- Gross factor: she closes a browser tab very fast when Pepe walks in (`* She closes a tab very fast.`); owns a book called `Fanfics of Questionable Quality, Vol. 7`; the house smells of "lavender and fursuit." Her bedroom is locked (`* It's locked. You hear a printer.`). She is never sexual toward Pepe; her gross factor is what she collects.
- Fate: spared → goes home and calls you in the epilogue; killed → dust with a final line.

10.3 Barky the Alpha Wolf (Area 1 mini-boss)

- Parody of: the Ruins' first "real" encounter + the internet edgelord. Data in `data/enemies/barky.json`.
- Role: the 7th convert (2021), formerly `xX_BarkSc0p3_Xx`, 23 years old. Fell while trying to film a video "at the top of Mt. Dew." Said "yes" after two weeks of Pop-Tarts. Still has gamer flashbacks and doesn't know where they come from.
- Look: wolf ears, studded faux-leather jacket, plastic chains, fingerless gloves, a tail held on with a safety pin, a cheap fursuit with a visible zipper.
- Personality: edgy, dramatic, howls at fluorescent lights, leads the "Shadow Fang Pack" (membership: him). Insecure: thinks everyone can tell he's "new."
- Voice: small font, high-pitched little bark.
- Gross factor: the fursuit smell (`* Barky smells like a gym bag that has seen war.`), dollar-store "musk," involuntary OwOs.
- Gamer flashbacks: sometimes, mid-sentence: `Fear the Shadow Fang Pa— one more match, mom— ...what?`
- Fate: spared → an NPC who keeps trying to recruit Pepe; in the no-kill Gamer ending, goes up with Pepe (§22.1). Killed → dust + red spark.

10.4 Senpai Sans — the only weeb in the Underground

- Parody of: Sans.
- Role: neutral. A weeb skeleton sealed in by mistake during the Sealing ("from far away, a weeb and a furry look the same"). Not a furry, not a gamer. He watches, judges, breaks the fourth wall. He's the only one who tells Pepe the truth (layer 4).

- Look: short, blue hoodie, pink slippers, a ninja headband with a stylized leaf, always hugging his "Skele-chan" body pillow (an adult skeleton waifu from a fictional anime).
- Personality: lazy, bone puns, mispronounced Japanese (`-desu`, `ne`, `nani`), naps at his post.
- Voice: Comic Sans-style font, all lowercase, bony beep.
- Lines:
  - `heh. i guess you could say my jokes are... bare bones-desu, ne?`
  - `don't you know how to greet a new pal? turn around and shake my hand.` → MLG air horn.
  - `why do you think everyone's so nice to you, pal? ...heh. think about it.`
- Gross factor (weeb/gamer side): the body pillow "was washed once" (`* Once.`); a box in his room labeled `study materials`; ecchi as "cultural reference."
- Fate: friend on the Gamer route; judge of the Last Lobby; fights "a really bad stream" on the Toxic route (§19.8).

10.5 Papyrus the Aspiring Streamer

- Parody of: Papyrus.
- Role: a skeleton who really wants to be a furry. The Royal Pawtrol won't take him ("they said I need FUR"). The plan: capture a gamer live on stream and prove his worth.
- Look: tall, a cardboard fursuit made of GPU boxes (cardboard ears, a USB-cable tail), RGB LED strips, a ring light on his back, red scarf, phone on a selfie stick.
- Personality: enthusiastic, pure, generous. Every puzzle is "content." 3 viewers: Sans, his own alt account and a bot.
- Voice: Papyrus-style font, ALL CAPS.
- Lines:
  - `NYEH HEH HEH! WELCOME TO THE STREAM, HUMAN! SMASH THAT FOLLOW BUTTON!`
  - `THIS IS MY FURSONA! HE IS A SKELETON! WITH CARDBOARD EARS! THE PAWTROL SAYS IT "DOESN'T COUNT"!`
  - `THREE VIEWERS! A NEW RECORD!`
- Gross factor: none. Papyrus is the only completely clean character in the game — and that's the joke (`* Papyrus has never once closed a tab in a hurry.`).
- Fate: friend; on the Furry route, does a "collab stream" with furry Pepe and is finally accepted as an "honorary furry."

10.6 Sharkdyne — Captain of the Royal Pawtrol (Area 3 boss)

- Parody of: Undyne.
- Role: captain of the Royal Pawtrol (the Royal Guard). Wants Pepe's soul for the King. Thinks conversion is a war and she's the hero.
- Look: a buff blue shark fursuit, an eye patch, red wig hair, plate armor on top, a huge harpoon.
- Personality: heroic, loud, competitive, soft-hearted. Yells her attack names. Her attack is sending you DMs.
- Voice: mixed case with lots of "!", metallic beep. Battle cry: `RAAAWR!!` (NGAHHH parody).
- Lines:
  - `GAMER! Do you know how many DMs I've sent today?! NOT ENOUGH!`
  - `You'll join the fandom whether you like it or NOT!`
  - `This fursuit is 104 degrees inside and I have NEVER felt more alive!`

- Gross factor: the DMs (`hey :3`, `u up?`, `rp?`), the "shark musk," and a 900-page fanfic she's writing about herself.
- Fate: pacifist → faints from heat inside her fursuit in Hotland; giving her water starts the friendship. Killed → dust and one last DM: `...seen.`

10.7 Alphys the Mod — Royal Moderator

- Parody of: Alphys.
- Role: scientist and moderator of the Archive. Created Mettapaw and, by accident, Floofy. Helps Pepe over the CELL in Hotland.
- Look: a small yellow lizard (scalie) in a lab coat, a giant `MOD` badge, glasses reflecting a monitor, a headset.
- Personality: anxious; when nervous she types instead of talking (`...is typing`).
- Lines: `O-oh! A gamer! I mean. Hi. Welcome to the server. Please read the rules. There are 400 rules.`
- Gross factor: the Archive's moderation queue (`* Approve? Deny? ...She clicks approve without looking.`), commissions she "has to review for professional reasons."
- Fate: alive on every non-Toxic route; on the Gamer route with the King banned, becomes "interim Queen."

10.8 Mettapaw — the influencer robot (Area 4 event)

- Parody of: Mettaton.
- Role: the 6th convert (2019), formerly `ClipFarmer_99`. Said "yes" because "furry content performs really well." Napstablurk's cousin. Hosts the quiz "Who Wants To Be Verified?".
- Look: a robot box with metal fox ears, a ring light for a face, a webcam antenna, a cable tail. Follower counter permanently at `1.2K` (bots).
- Lines: `OH YES! Smash that LIKE button, darlings!` · `Don't forget to like, subscribe, and SURRENDER YOUR SOUL!` · `Exclusive content on my OnlyPaws, darling. ...It's mostly cooking videos.`
- Fate: quiz with no death; on the Toxic route, flees by deactivating their own account: `OH NO. NOT LIKE THIS, DARLING. NOT ON CAMERA.` → `* Mettapaw has deactivated their account.`

10.9 King Asgrr — President of the Con (Gamer route final boss)

- Parody of: Asgore.
- Role: King, former president of FurNation Con '14, Azzy's father, Furiell's ex-husband. Wants the 7th soul to break the Barrier and furrify the surface, "so that no one is ever shamed again."
- Look: a giant goat fursuit, blond beard, a purple cape covered in lanyards from old conventions, a participation-trophy crown, a trident of braided lanyards.
- Personality: gentle, tired, grieving. Tends a garden of gold participation trophies. Drinks questionable herbal tea.
- Lines: `Howdy. ...Oh. Oh dear. You know what I must ask of you.` · `Would you like some tea? It is herbal. I think.` · `Everyone here gets a trophy. Everyone.`
- Gross factor: the royal cologne `Eau de Grr` (`* It smells like a wet carpet that won an award.`); the cape has never been washed ("it has history").
- Key gesture: at the start of the fight, MERCY is grayed out: `This feature is not available in your region.`

10.10 Floofy — the shameless flower

- Parody of: Flowey (and Asriel).
- Role: the golden flower wearing Prince Azzy's fursuit head. No soul, no shame. Pepe's first "friend," fake tutor, commentator and the real antagonist.
- Look: a yellow flower with big petals, and the "face" is the little goat fursuit head, with plastic eyes and a zipper running down the middle of its face. In sinister mode the zipper opens and shows only darkness and two white eyes (never anything more).
- Personality: cute and fake; later, mocking and completely boundaryless. Says everything nobody would say. The "no filter" furry taken to the extreme.
- Voice: default font in a speech bubble; in sinister mode, a thicker, shaky font.
- Lines:
  - `Howdy! I'm FLOOFY! Floofy the Flower!`
  - `Down here, we share these little white... "free hug pellets"!`
  - `You idiot. In this world, it's SHAME or be SHAMED.`
  - `Shame is what killed me. So I got rid of it. Want to see what that's like?`
- Tutorial (R2): the "free hug pellets" are little hearts that deal damage and +20 FUR each; he surrounds Pepe with a ring of them: `HUG.` Furiell arrives and drives him off with a glitter spray; she heals Pepe and FUR drops back to 0 ("my glitter is hypoallergenic").
- Appearances: R2, R13, S7, H2 (through the log), N5 (finale). On the Furry route, he's the one who calls in the raid (§17).

10.11 xX_Moderator_Xx — the Supreme Gamer (Furry route boss)

- Role: leader of Pepe's guild and the last of the Seven Moderators still active. 38. Hasn't showered since the Sealing ("a ritual"). Only appears through messages until the Furry route, where he leads the raid on the Underground.
- Look: a huge headset, greasy hair in a ponytail, a stained "GG" T-shirt, orange fingers, sitting in an RGB gaming chair turned mech (casters, robot arms, bottle holder), a green stink cloud around him.
- Personality: the total toxic gamer. Talks in caps, in memes, in "skill issue."
- Lines: `FURRY OUTBREAK. EVERYONE ON VOICE. NOW.` · `Pepe?? bro you're a FURRY now?? that's actually crazy. ratio.` · `I've been in this chair since 2014. The chair is part of me now.`
- Gross factor: everything (§19.9).

11. Structure and pacing

11.1 Principles

1. One room = one idea (a puzzle, a big joke or an encounter).
2. No mandatory backtracking.
3. Random encounters on a budget: 2–3 per area outside the Toxic route.
4. Bosses last 2–3 minutes (4–6 turns with the right ACT).
5. Puzzles solvable in < 45 s, with a funny hint.
6. Cutscenes run at most ~6 text boxes before handing control back.

11.3 Furry route

Same path until the conversion (which can happen in any area from R3 on). After the conversion, boss fights become short scenes (−5 to −6 min) and the The Raid act is added (+4 to +5 min). Final runtime is similar:

~28–32 min.

11.4 Toxic route

~30–35 min (grinding to empty the areas + Senpai Sans's fight).

11.5 Difficulty (Gamer route, no kills, LV 1)

17. The Furry Route and the "The Raid" act

17.1 Entry

The player accepts the Mirror (§8.5). Pepe becomes Pepe the Pawsome, his soul turns plush, HP becomes FLUFF (§8.6) and he carries his old soul in a jar (`Your Old SOUL (Jar)`).

17.2 What changes on the rest of the path

Element	Change
Random encounters	Become hug encounters: no battle. `* Shysona hugs you. FLUFF restored.` (heals 3–5).
Furiell (if not fought yet)	No fight. She cries with joy: `My child... you came home.` Hands over Pop-Tarts and lets you go "meet the King."
Barky (if not fought yet)	No fight: `DUDE. Welcome to the pack. You're... honestly a better wolf than me.`
Papyrus	No fight: a collab stream. `A FURRY?! ON MY STREAM?!` → chat spams `HONORARY FURRY`, and Papyrus: `CHAT HAS SPOKEN! I AM AN HONORARY FURRY! THIS IS THE BEST DAY OF MY CAREER!` Gives you his number.
Sharkdyne	No fight: she recruits you into the Royal Pawtrol. `I KNEW you had it in you, recruit!`
Mettapaw	Quiz kept (it's fun); wrong answers cost FLUFF instead of adding FUR.
NPCs	Welcome lines, discounts, `you've got good fluff`.
Floofy	Disappears after the conversion. `Huh. You did it yourself. ...No shame. I like that.` (he comes back in The Raid).
Pepe's new ACTs	`Hug`, `OwO`, `Show Fursona`, `Wag`, `Hug Yourself` (heals).
Pepe's FIGHT	Becomes BONK: `* Go to horny jail.` (kills no one).

17.3 The Con Center on the Furry route

- The King welcomes Pepe in tears. `You came... willingly?` Pepe hands over the jar. Seven souls.
- The Barrier falls in a "pomf" of glitter and stench. Sunlight.
- Right then, Floofy turns on a camera and streams everything to the surface with the title `FURRY OUTBREAK AT MT. DEW (NOT CLICKBAIT)`. `What? I don't have shame. I have VIEWS.`
- Pepe's phone buzzes: `RAID RELOCATED. MT. DEW. FURRY OUTBREAK. EVERYONE ON VOICE. - xX_Moderator_Xx`

17.4 The "The Raid" act (~4–5 min)

ID	Room	What happens
X1	The Barrier breach	The guild comes down Mt. Dew. Silhouettes with headsets, bottles, ring lights. The furries hide behind Pepe. `* (Oh no. These are your friends.)` `* (Were.)`
X2	Con Center hall	4 gamer encounters in a row (§18.5), one per booth: Discord Simp, Gacha Whale, Bottle Guy, Apology Streamer. Dragon Excuse Guy is optional (a dark booth in the

ID	Room	What happens
	(gauntlet)	corner). Between them, furries pop out to hug you (heal). Save in the middle: `* The terrified hugging of a hundred furries fills you with DETERMINATION.`
X3	The top of the Rift (sunrise)	Boss: xX_Moderator_Xx in the chair-mech (§19.9). The furries watch. Papyrus streams it.

17.5 Resolution

See the Furry ending (§22.3).

19.6 King Asgrr (Con Center, Gamer route)

- HP 1500 · AT 12 · DF 6 · EXP 2000 · G 0
- Before: `Howdy. ...I have not been outside in twelve years. Would you like some tea? ...No? Then I must ask you for your SOUL.`
- Grayed-out MERCY: `This feature is not available in your region.`
- ACTs: `Check` (`* ASGRR - ATK 12 DEF 6` / `* Everyone gets a trophy. Even you.`) · `Talk` ×3 (`* You tell Asgrr about your raid. He does not know what a raid is.` → on the 3rd, AT and DF −1) · `Refuse` (`* You tell him no. Clearly.` → `...You are the first one who ever said it.` — skips 1 attack; changes his final line)
- Patterns: `lanyard_trident_sweep` (blue/orange), `tea_splash` (+2), `trophy_rain` (+3), `convention_crowd` (a wave of tiny fursuiters running, +10), `cologne_cloud` (`Eau de Grr`, green, damage over time).
- End (low HP): he kneels; MERCY comes back. Spare → `...You would spare me? After I tried to make you one of us?` · Kill → `...Ah. So that is how it is.` (lanyard dust). Then, the finale (§22).

19.7 Floofy (Gamer route finale) — "The Mascot"

- Floofy absorbs the 6 souls and becomes The Mascot: a giant, grotesque convention mascot stitched together from hundreds of fursuit heads, plushies and tails, with a CRT TV in its chest showing Floofy's zipper face. Cute horror, nothing explicit: the horror is the sheer number of plastic eyes.
- Mechanics: `File Load` (Flowey's save/load parody: he undoes your last turn, the screen flashes `File Loaded`), `plush_tentacles`, `glitter_cannon`, `owo_missiles`, `zipper_mouth` (the zipper mouth opens and unleashes a torrent of "free hug pellets").
- The 6 souls rebel (1:1): each phase adds an ACT named after a converted ex-gamer (`Barky`, `Napstablurk`, `Jerry`, `Musk-ron`, `Vtuber-en`, `Mettapaw`). Using it shows the soul remembering who they were, heals Pepe and weakens the Mascot:
  - `* xX_BarkSc0p3_Xx remembers his first headshot. It shields you.`
  - `* xX_AFK_Xx remembers being away from keyboard. It finally logs in for you.`
  - `* BrbJerry remembers saying "brb". This time, he's back.`
  - `* GymRat_Gaming remembers leg day. He skipped it. He doesn't skip you.`
  - `* quiet_healer remembers healing the party. Your HP goes up.`
  - `* ClipFarmer_99 remembers his best clip. He clips the Mascot instead.`
- End: Floofy turns back into a flower and begs. Spare → `...why? you're so cringe.` (he leaves). Kill → `...gg.`

19.8 Senpai Sans: "a really bad stream" (Toxic route)

- In the Last Lobby. Short and hard (3 phases of ~40 s). HP 1 · AT 1 · DF 1 — dodges everything until he falls asleep in the final phase.
- Opening: `it's a beautiful day outside. the wi-fi is down. on days like these, gamers like you... should be getting a really bad stream.`
- Patterns: `bone_rows`, `air_horn_blasters` (MLG air-horn skulls), `karma_fur` (each hit adds a KR bar that eats HP; uses the FUR bar as temporary KR, reset at the end).
- End: `...welp. i'm going to grillby's. papyrus, want anything?`

19.9 xX_Moderator_Xx (The Raid act, Furry route)

- HP 800 · AT 14 · DF 6 · Pepe's soul: pink plush, FLUFF bar.
- Look: RGB gaming chair turned mech, green stink cloud, headset, stained "GG" T-shirt.
- Opening: `Pepe?? bro. BRO. you're a FURRY now?? that's actually insane. RATIO. everyone on voice, we're clearing this place.`
- Patterns (all deal SHAME):
  - `ban_hammer` — hammers falling in columns.
  - `copypasta_wall` — a wall of text scrolling down with one gap.
  - `bottle_barrage` — bouncing yellow bottles.
  - `musk_cloud_gamer` — a green cloud of 12 years without a shower; residual SHAME.
  - `homework_folder` — a `Homework` folder opens and spits out mosaic censor blocks that fall like bullets (the folder's only "visual" is the censorship).
  - `cringe_compilation` — video frames of furry Pepe himself (`FURRY AT MT. DEW (GONE WRONG)`); high SHAME.
- ACTs: `Open a Window` (AT −2) · `Ask When He Last Showered` (`2014. it's a ritual.`; DF −2) · `Mention His Mom` (he freezes for 1 turn: `don't bring her into this`) · `Hug` (he panics; spareable after 3 ACTs) · `BONK` (FIGHT).
- Final phase: the furries you helped show up behind Pepe; each one heals FLUFF.
- End: spare → `...ok this is actually so cringe. i'm logging off. * xX_Moderator_Xx has left the game.` · final BONK → horny jail.

22. Routes and endings

22.0 How the route is decided

Route	Condition
Furry	Accepted the Mirror (FUR 100%). Possible on any route except Toxic.
Toxic Gamer	Exhausted the kill cap in every area (Ruins 6, Snowdinha 6, Wetfall 5, Hotland 3 — random encounters only) and killed every killable boss (Barky, Furiell, Papyrus, Sharkdyne). FUR caps at 99.
Gamer	Everything else. Variants by kill count and by who survived.

22.1 GAMER ending (main)

1. Asgrr's fight → Spare or Kill.
2. If spared, Floofy bans the King (`* ASGRR has been banned from the server.`) and steals the jars → The Mascot (§19.7).
3. After the fight, Pepe crosses the Barrier alone, with his own soul. The Barrier stays up: the furries stay down there. The threat is contained.
4. No-kill variant ("Gamer — Clean Run"): once the Mascot is beaten, the 6 souls return to their owners. The ex-gamers now have furry bodies and gamer souls: they can cross. Barky goes up with Pepe. At the raid:

```
GUILD: who's the wolf
GUILD: bro brought a wolf main??
BARKY: I'm... I'm the DPS. I think I always was.
* (He's actually good.)
* (He tops the damage meter. You don't mention the zipper.)
```

5. Epilogue phone call (1:1 with the neutral ending), from whoever is in charge:

Situation	Who calls	Call
Furiell alive	Queen Furiell	`Hello? It is Furiell. I am Queen now, apparently. I gave everyone forty blankets. The castle has never smelled more like lavender.` / `...The fursuit head is still in your closet. No pressure.`
Furiell dead, Papyrus alive	King Papyrus	`KING PAPYRUS, STREAMING LIVE FROM THE THRONE! 4 VIEWERS!` / `THE CROWN IS CARDBOARD. THE PAWTROL SAYS IT "DOESN'T COUNT". IT COUNTS!`
Only Sharkdyne	Sharkdyne	`PUNK! I'm Captain AND acting ruler now! Next arc, I'm sliding into the SURFACE's DMs!` / `...hey :3`
Only Alphys	Alphys	`...is typing` for a long time. Then: `nvm`.
Nobody	—	`* But nobody logged in.`

6. Pepe at home: the basement bedroom, monitor glow, bottles. He plays the raid (or got kicked, depending on the clock). His mom knocks: `dinner`. Final shot: Pepe looks at his phone, opens the gallery, scrolls to a photo taken in the Underground... and closes it fast. `* (...Whatever.)`

22.2 TOXIC GAMER ending

1. Empty areas, slowed-down music, `* But nobody logged in.`
2. Last Lobby: Senpai Sans's fight (§19.8).
3. Throne: Floofy bans the King and offers himself: `I'll be your follower! Your biggest fan! I have no shame, we're the SAME—` → Pepe kills him. `* gg.`
4. Pepe takes the 6 souls, crosses, makes it in time, top DPS, posts `gg ez`.
5. `xX_Moderator_Xx`: `bro. that was the best raid i've ever seen. you want to be co-leader?` — Pepe accepts.
6. Final scene: Pepe in the chair, a green cloud around him, bottles up to the ceiling. He has become the Moderator. `* You haven't showered in a while. * It's a ritual now.`
7. Empty title, no music (§24).

22.3 FURRY ending ("Pepe the Pawsome")

1. After The Raid and `xX_Moderator_Xx has left the game.`
2. The furries climb to the surface for the first time in 12 years. Blinded by the light, they do the first natural thing: hug everything. The second: complain about how hot the fursuits are.
3. Epilogue in cards (intro style, now narrated from the furry side):

Card	Image	Text
1	Furries on the slope of Mt. Dew at sunrise	`The FURRIES returned to the surface.` / `The GAMERS logged off.` / `Nobody was ready.`
2	A convention banner, Pepe the Pawsome on it	`FurNation Con returned.` / `Its new mascot:` / `PEPE THE PAWSOME.`
3	Furiell and a mountain of Pop-Tarts	`Furiell baked Pop-Tarts` / `for 40,000 people.` / `Nobody asked. Everybody ate.`
4	Papyrus's stream overlay	`Papyrus finally reached` / `10 viewers.` / `All of them furries.`

4. Final scene: on `xX_Moderator_Xx`'s phone, alone in his room, a viral clip of the mascot. He looks around. He quietly hits follow. `* (Even the Seven have secrets.)`
5. Title: Pepe in mascot form, waving.

22.4 Raid clock lines per ending

Ending	Time left	Ran out
Gamer	Plays the raid, silent.	Kicked. `* (Whatever.)`
Gamer — Clean Run	Brings Barky.	Kicked; Barky starts a new guild with him. `BARKY: new guild. two members. we're called the Shadow Fang Pack. * (You're in a wolf guild now.)`
Toxic	Top DPS.	Same: nobody is really there.
Furry	The raid came to him.	Same.
Speedrun (> 10:00 left, any ending)	Extra line: `* Your guild asks how you got back so fast. * (Skill issue.)`	—

23. Game overs: FURRY OVER and GAMER OVER

23.1 FURRY OVER (Gamer and Toxic routes)

- Trigger: HP 0 (except against Papyrus).
- Sequence: the soul doesn't break: it grows little ears and a tail, inflates and pops in a "pomf" of pink pom-poms. Then the `FURRY OVER` logo, laid out like "GAME OVER."
- Voice: King Asgrr's (1:1), with the player's name:
  - `Don't lose hope, [NAME]... The ears suit you, honestly.`
  - `[NAME]! Stay determined... and maybe a little fluffy.`
  - `This is not the end, [NAME]. It is a... rebrand.`
  - `Get up, [NAME]. Your guild is counting on you. ...Probably.`
  - `You cannot give up just yet... You have not even picked a species.`

    - `Your SOUL said no, [NAME]. ...This time.`
- Variations: against Barky: `...welcome to the pack? no? ok.` · 3+ FURRY OVERs (`meta.ever_transformed ≥ 3`): `...Again? Keep the tail, [NAME].` · Toxic route: no voice.
- On continue: back to the save; FUR returns to the saved value.

23.2 GAMER OVER (Furry route)

- Trigger: FLUFF 0.
- Sequence: the plush soul loses its fur all at once, turns back into the original red soul and cracks (Undertale's original game over, 1:1 — the joke is that on this route it's the worst fate). Then: `GAMER OVER`.
- Voice: Furiell's:
    - `[NAME]... don't let them shame you. Stay fluffy.`
    - `Get up, my child. They are only words. And screenshots. And compilations.`
    - `You are not a gamer anymore, [NAME]. ...Unless you want to be. Do you?`
    - `Stay determined, [NAME]. And moisturize your fur.`

24. Meta-narrative

Trigger	Who	Line
Load after a FURRY OVER	Floofy (if in the Ruins)	`Did you just reload? I saw that. No shame, though. I'd do it too.`
Kill and reload	Floofy	`You killed them and loaded your save. Deleting the evidence? Gamer behavior.`
Reset after any ending	Senpai Sans (S1)	`heh. you look like you've seen this episode before.`
Reset after Toxic	Floofy (R2)	`You again? You know what you did. I have screenshots. I have NO shame about showing them.`
Reset after Furry	Furiell (R3)	`...Have we met? You smell familiar.`
`meta.resets ≥ 3`	Senpai Sans (Grillby's)	`you ever feel stuck in a loop? like a gacha banner that never ends?`
Same name as the previous game	Name screen	`* Again? You must really love this name.`

Title screens by last ending

Ending	Title screen
None	Floating logo, black background.
Gamer	Pepe in his basement room, monitor glow.
Gamer — Clean Run	Pepe and Barky in headsets, side by side.
Furry	Pepe the Pawsome waving.

Ending	Title screen
Toxic	Empty. Just the logo. No music.

- Colorful overworld with a limited palette per area; battles in white on black, color only for special moments.
- Nothing visually explicit (§2.2). The ceiling is: mosaic censor blocks, closed objects (tab, folder, curtain), stink clouds, and the narrator refusing to describe.
- Every character has adult proportions. No childlike designs.
- Readable silhouette: every character has one element that reads in solid black (Barky's ears, Sans's body pillow, Papyrus's cardboard ears, Sharkdyne's harpoon, Asgrr's lanyards, Mettapaw's ring light, Floofy's zipper fursuit head, the Moderator's chair-mech).
- The stench is visible: wavy green (cartoon) lines coming off fursuits, Bottle Guy, the Moderator and the Barrier.
- "Fluff" particles in the air in every area (2–4 per screen, `#FFB3E6` and `#FFD27F`), denser the higher the FUR.

26. Placeholder list (what to go find)

> So final art doesn't block development: this is the list of what the game needs. Go find good-enough placeholders; final art comes later. Priority: P0 = playable Ruins (vertical slice) · P1 = rest of the Gamer route · P2 = Furry route, Toxic route and optional content.

26.1 Placeholder rules

- Use the final file name (the path in the table) so swapping is just replacing the file.
- Log each one in `assets/PLACEHOLDERS.md` (file, source, license).
- Good sources: Kenney.nl (CC0), OpenGameArt.org, itch.io (filter "free" + "pixel art"), Freesound.org (SFX), Incompetech / OpenGameArt (CC-BY music).

- Content rules apply to placeholders too: no real people (photos/memes of real faces), nothing explicit.
- Undertale rips: useful as a size reference, but never commit them to the public repo (D-04). If you use them, keep them in a git-ignored folder (e.g. `assets/_ref/`).
- Scale: the sizes below are native (1×); the game draws at 2×.
